

A just weight and balance are the LORD'S:

Thus saith the Lord...

- In Matthew 22, the Pharisees, Sadducees and the Herodians all took turns to try and entrap Jesus asking three tough questions:
 - 1) Is it lawful to pay Caesar taxes?
 - 2) Whose wife in the resurrection?
 - 3) What is the greatest command?

- Jesus' answered all three with great reasoning and they were left speechless.
- With their opportunity now over, it was now Jesus' turn to ask a question for them.

- Matthew 22:41

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them
a question,

- 42 saying,
"What do you think about the Christ,
whose son is He?"

- What think ye of Christ?
- Whose Son is He?
- What a question.
- The most important question of all questions.

- The most common title of the Messiah was “Son of David”.
- Behind it lay the expectation that there would one day come a great prince of the line of David.

- Who would shatter Israel's enemies and lead the people to the conquest of all nations.
 - The Messiah was most commonly thought of in nationalistic, political, military terms of power and glory.
 - By asking this question Jesus is attempting to correct that misconception.

- It is not enough to call the Messiah
Son of David.
 - He is not
David's son;
- He is David's Lord.

- When Jesus healed the blind men, they called him Son of David (Matthew 20:30).
- When he entered Jerusalem the crowds hailed him as Son of David (Matthew 21:9).

- What do you think of Christ?
- Whose Son is He?
- When it comes to opinions about Jesus Christ, the world has never lacked for any variety of suggestions.

- About 100 A.D.
the Jews wrote in the Babylonian Talmud:
Jesus practiced magic and led Israel astray.

(Gerhard Lohfink-German Catholic priest and theologian)

- Ralph Waldo Emerson, himself not a believer,
said,

- "Jesus is the most perfect of all the men that have yet appeared on the earth."

- Rennan

the French atheist
said

”He is the greatest among the sons of men.”

- David Strauss
who was a staunch hater of Christianity and denied all of its supernatural claims said Jesus is, quote,

- "The highest model of religion within the reach of human thought."

- And it has always been that Christianity has found its most violent detractors and its most aggressive attackers coming at the deity of Jesus Christ.

- The major emphasis of those who would deny the reality of Christianity is to attack the deity of Jesus Christ, emphasizing that He is a man and nothing more.

- The Center for Spiritual Awareness

led by

Roy Eugene Davis says,

- "Jesus was an enlightened soul and men must be awakened to their own Christ nature within them."

- Christian Science teaches that Jesus was a mere man who demonstrated a divine idea but His blood cleanses nothing.

- The Church Universal and Triumphant with Elizabeth Claire (Supposed Prophet)
as leader says

- Jesus is a man with Christ consciousness, one of many men who have achieved that level.

- Free Masonry
says, quote,
- "We tell the sincere Christian that Jesus was but a man like us."
- Hare Krishna
says,
- "Jesus is just another guru."

- Both the scriptures and the prophets affirm that
 - Jesus Christ and Lucifer are indeed offspring of our Heavenly Father and, therefore, spirit brothers.

(Jess L. Christensen, Institute of Religion director at Utah State University, Logan, Utah.)

- Jesus, Satan, and all humanity share God the Father as their spiritual sire.
- However, moral agency led Jesus to obey God the Father perfectly and share fully in the Father's divine nature and power.

- The same agency led Satan to renounce God, fight Jesus, and doom himself to eternal damnation.
- The remainder of God's children, all of us, have the choice to follow the route chosen by Satan, or the path to which Christ invites us and shows the way.

- All false systems have a problem with the unique identity of the deity of Jesus Christ.

- And that is where the battle lines are ultimately drawn in terms of the Christian faith.

- And these misrepresentations and misconceptions are not new.

- In fact, they even existed in the time of Jesus Christ.

- The Jews believed in a non-deity Messiah.
- They believed their Messiah would be a human political military leader.
- And this text comes as a corrective to that very serious error.

- Notice the question then,
as the Pharisees were there gathered,
Jesus asked them saying,
 - What is your opinion of the Christ?

- He's not asking about Himself,
it's indirect.
 - He's not saying
am I the Christ.
 - He's not saying
what is your opinion of Me?
 - He is asking them for a Messianic identification.

- This was a simple question for the Pharisees to answer, for the coming Christ would be a descendent of King David.

- Though the Pharisees struggled to see Jesus as the Christ, they knew that the Christ would be coming through the lineage of David, for the OT made it quite evident.

- Even though Jesus was a descendent of David's lineage, they simply had a problem with Jesus being the Christ

- Jesus will now leave them to struggle with the question.

- Matthew 22:41

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question,

- saying,
"What do you think about the Christ, whose son is He?"
- They said to Him,
"The son of David."

- Matthew 22:43-46

- He said to them,

- "Then how does

David

in the Spirit call Him

'Lord,'

- Jesus is quoting Psalm 110.

- This was a well known Psalm among the Jewish leadership concerning their perception of the coming Messiah.

- They believed the Christ would come as a mighty King and establish a kingdom like David.
- He would defeat Rome and all other enemies,
 - Humiliating them at his feet and ruling them permanently.

- Is it any wonder that during a time of great persecution against Israel that this became one of the more popular Psalms?
 - The nation had a history of great military victories in the past, but this would be the greatest victory of all.

- The apostles still thought this even up to forty days after the resurrection from the dead.

- Acts 1:6

And so when they had come together, they were asking Him, saying, "Lord, is it at this time You are restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

- The problem was that Jesus did not fit the description because to them He was a poor, humble, smooth-talking carpenter from a nowhere place in Galilee.

- The popularity of this Psalm is reflected in its usage in New Testament as well, for it is the most quoted verse from the Old Testament.

- Jesus is quoted twice in the gospels to explain Whom He is (Matthew 22:42 & Luke 20:43)
- Peter quoted it in the sermon on Pentecost to explain Jesus
as the Christ (Acts 2:34-35).

- The writer of the Book of Hebrews quotes similar references five times in his explanation of the Christ (Heb 1:13, 5:6, 7:17, 9:8, 10:13)

- To Jesus question they have no answer, for to comment on it only further point out their ignorance about who the real Christ was.
- Before the great crowd of delighted listeners, the Pharisees were shut up once and for all.

- If they could not answer a simple question like this, then how could they be trusted in saying that Jesus was a blasphemer and not the real Christ?
- They were the greatest minds
in all Israel,
yet they could not answer an uneducated Galilean.

- Jesus answered all their questions with ease, but they could not even comment on one of their favorite text.
- Their reputation and opinion was pretty much useless.
- And the common people were beginning to see this.

- 1 Corinthians 1:19

- For it is written,
I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
and the cleverness of the clever
I will set aside.

- "They said to Him,"
without hesitation.
 - That's easy.
"David's son".
 - And they hurried to show their knowledge when in fact they show their ignorance.
 - Any Jew
would have given that reply.

- That's what all the scribes taught.

- Mark 12:35,

Jesus says you believe that Messiah is the Son of David

because that's what the scribes teach. ■47

- So the Jews had it correct that the Messiah would come in the lineage of David .

- Now this is very important.

- That is why Matthew goes to great lengths to present Jesus Christ's genealogy in chapter 1.

- He traces the entire genealogy from Abraham through David down to Joseph to Christ.

- If Jesus had not been of David's lineage, you can be sure that would have been a major issue.

- That would have disqualified Jesus instantly from being the Messiah.
- As temple records on the genealogy of everyone were kept with the finest detail.

- And it's only been since the destruction of the temple in 70 A.D. that the Jewish people today no longer know their genealogy because the records have been lost.

- A Jew couldn't hold any civic responsibility in the nation unless their genealogy was known.
- A priest would never marry someone whose genealogy they did not know.
 - So genealogy was very very important.

- And if they could have disqualified Jesus on a non-Davidic line, they would have done it.
- The fact that they didn't and never brought it up indicates that in fact He was from the line of David.

- Therefore he was qualified humanly to be the King of Israel.
- And if they had had a monarchy in those days, He would have been the king.

- But their answer, as right as it was, was inadequate.
- It was correct but it fell short of the full answer.

- So, they were saying to Him,

"Who do You think You are, letting people call You Son of David?"

- That great Messianic title is too great a title for You."

- And He is saying

no,

it's too a small

a title for Me.

- Where do we find the answer?
- Davidic descent is only one mark, there's got to be another one.
- Where are we going to find it?

- The first place
we ought to look is where?
- In the scriptures.
 - And that's exactly where the Lord goes.

- Look at verse 43 again.
- "How then doth David
in the Spirit
call the Messiah Lord?"
- There's a qualifier there that's very important.
 - When David called the Messiah Lord he was what?
 - “In the Spirit”.

- That's the same Greek phrase used in Revelation 1:10.

- Telling us that John was in the Spirit on the Lord's day.

- It means to be under the control of the Holy Spirit.

- Mark gives a comparative statement.

- Mark 12:36

"How then doth David
in the Holy Spirit
call Him Lord?"

- So He's not talking about the human spirit, He's talking about the Holy Spirit.

- Anybody who wants to knock out the deity of Christ has got to deal with this verse.
- And its really suffered the arrows of the critics.

- When the Lord says
David calls
the Messiah Lord
in this Psalm,
the Lord is therefore interpreting this Psalm for us and He's telling us three things.

- When Jesus quotes Psalm 110:1,
 - He says:
 - One,
it is Messianic;
 - Two,
it is written by David;
 - Three,
it affirms the deity of Messiah.
 - That's its intent.

- And what did God say to David's Lord?

- Look at verse 44,

"The Lord God said
to my Lord, the Messiah,
the Christ,

Sit Thou on My right hand."

- What does that mean?

- God Himself has designated a position of rank for the Messiah that places Him at His own right hand and makes Him co-equal.
 - Equal glory promised to the Messiah because He is equal deity.

- If there were nothing else in the Bible but Revelation 22:16, it would be enough.

"I Jesus,"

here's His own testimony,

"have sent My angel to testify unto you these things in the churches."

- Listen to this,

"I am the root and the offspring of David."

- He is David's Son,
- He is David's Lord,
- God-man.
 - Luke 2:52 says
He grew in wisdom, stature, favor with God and man.
 - Every bit human,
every bit the Son of David.

- He knew pain.
- He knew thirst.
- He knew hunger.
- He knew weariness.
- He knew sleep.
- He knew pleasure.
- He knew death.

- If God became a man
we would expect
His human life to be sinless.

- Jesus was.

- If God were to become a man we would expect Him to be a model of purity.

- Jesus was.

- If God were a man we would expect His words to be the greatest ever spoken.
- Jesus' words were.

- If God were to become a man we would expect some miracles.

- And Jesus did them.

- If God were to become a man we would expect Him to manifest the love of God.
- And Jesus did.

- And the conclusion can only be that He's God, David's Son,
David's Lord.
- And anyone with an open heart can see that.
- Where is your heart today?

The doors of the church are open.

The Spirit and the Bride
Say “Come”.
