

A just weight and balance are the LORD'S:

Thus saith the Lord...

- Jezebel is the most hated woman in the Bible
- In today's sermon however we are not going to talk about the most hated woman but the most hated man in the Bible instead.
- That being none other than Judas Iscariot.

- After all Jezebel was a heathen who worshiped Baal and we can expect nothing but bad from this woman.
- Judas in the other hand was a Jewish man probably brought up in a godly home and was a disciple of Christ.
- Then what made Judas so sinister?

- Matthew 27:3

Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

- 27:4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood.

And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

- 27:5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

- The opening of Matthew 27 describes the delivery of our Lord Jesus Christ into the hands of the Gentiles.

- The chief priests and elders of the Jews led him away to Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor.

- We see in this incident the finger of God:
  - Here we find that Gentiles as well as Jews involved in the murder of Christ;
  - By this event the Jews had to publicly confess that
- “ The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, until Shiloh come; ” (Genesis 49:10)

- That being that they were unable to put anyone to death without the authority of the Romans:
- The words of Jacob were therefore fulfilled.
  - The Messiah, Shiloh had indeed come ( Genesis 49:10 ).

- The subject of our sermon for today is the sad end of this false apostle, Judas Iscariot.
- Judas is not alone in this category.
- 2Co 11:13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
- 11:14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
- 11:15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

- At some point in his ministry Judas had “shut up his compassion” for the poor.

- 1John 3:17

If we are rich and see others in need, yet close our hearts against them, how can we claim that we love God?

- Regrettably, for Judas that lack of compassion overflowed to include Jesus.

- When Mary, Lazarus' sister, anointed Jesus' feet with a “very precious” ointment, Judas complained about it.
- His rationalization was that the valuable substance might have been sold, with the revenue distributed to the poor.
- But John affirmed that his protest had nothing to do with “care for the poor” (John 12:6).
- The object of his interest was “poor Judas.”

- John declared that his protest was powered by greed, for he was a thief, who “took away” (John 12:6 ASV) what was deposited in the treasury.
  - The Greek verb reflects a sustained practice.
  - Judas had become a petty thief!
  - 1 Timothy 4:2 having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

- 1Corinthians 15:33 (GNB)

Do not be fooled.

"Bad companions ruin good character."

- One bad apple
is a danger to the others.
- The critical spirit of Judas was absorbed by some of the other disciples.
(Matthew 26:8; Mark 14:4).
- Keep this fact in mind.

- Although a false apostle Judas serves as a subject full of instruction:

- Let us remember well what it contains.

- May I suggest

- 6 lessons

- from the life of Judas.

- # 1 We see in the end of Judas a plain proof of our Lord's innocence of every charge laid against him.

- If there was any living witness who could give evidence against our Lord Jesus Christ, Judas Iscariot was the man.

- A chosen apostle of Jesus,
  - A constant companion,
- A witness of all his teaching, both in public and private
  - He would have known well if our Lord had done any wrong, either in word or deed.
- So why not call this witness to the stand to testify?

- In addition Judas was a deserter from our Lord's company,
  - A betrayer of him into the hands of his enemies,
  - It was his interest for his own character's sake, to prove Jesus guilty.

- It would extenuate and excuse his own conduct if he could prove that his former Master was an offender and an impostor.

- Why then did not Judas Iscariot not come forward?
  - Why did he not stand forth before the Jewish council and specify his charges, if he had any to make?
  - Why did he not venture to accompany the chief priests to Pilate, and prove to the Romans that Jesus was a criminal?

- There is but one answer to these questions.
- Judas did not come forward as a witness, because the Jewish leaders knew he had betrayed innocent blood.
  - Which he admitted even before the trial began.
- Judas would have recanted and the leaders could not afford for that to happen

- Bad as he was,
he knew he could prove nothing against Christ;
- Wicked as he was,
he knew well that his Master was holy, harmless,
innocent, blameless and true.

- Let this never be forgotten.
  - The absence of Judas Iscariot at our Lord's trial is one among many proofs that the Lamb of God was without blemish, a sinless man.
(2 Corinthians 5:21)

- # 2 We see in Judas a repentance which is too late.
- We are told plainly that Judas “repented himself.”
(Matthew 27:3)
- We are even told that he went to the priests and said, “I have sinned.”
(Matthew 27:4)
  - Yet he did not repent unto salvation.

- Yet, Judas did testify.
  - Matthew 27:4
I have sinned in that I have betrayed innocent blood.
- But the Jewish leaders were not interested.
  - And they said,
What is that to us?

- The Jewish leaders were seeking witnesses, just not Judas.

- Mark 14:55

And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.

- 14:56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

- It is a common saying that “it is never too late to repent.”
- The saying, no doubt, is true, if repentance be true;
  - But regrettably, late repentance is often not genuine.

- It is possible for a man to know he has sinned, and be sorry for them
  - To express deep remorse
  - To be pricked in conscience,
  - To exhibit much distress of mind
    - and yet, for all this, not repent with his heart.
- (Proverbs 23:7)

- Proverbs 23:7

For as he thinks in his heart,
so is he:

- The fear of death,
may account for all his fake repentance.

- Let us beware of trusting to a late repentance.

Now is the accepted time today is the day of salvation.”
(2 Corinthians 6:2)

- Let us delay nothing that concerns our souls,

- Luke 12:20

But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee:

- And above all do not put off repentance.

- The words of Solomon on this subject are very fearful:
- He speaks of men who shall call upon God but he will not answer;
- who shall seek him early and not find him.
( Proverbs 1:28 )

- # 3 Let us see in Judas how little comfort ungodliness brings a man at the last.

- We are told that he cast down the thirty pieces of silver for which he had sold his Master in the temple, and went away in bitterness of soul.

- The thirty pieces of silver were easily earned.

- But brought him no pleasure,

even when he had it:

“the treasures of wickedness profit nothing.”

( Proverbs 10:2 ).

- Sin is, in truth,
the hardest of all masters.
- “Cannot cease from sin”
(2 Peter 2:14)
- Sin becomes the master:
  - 2 Peter 2:19
While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption:
for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

- In sins service there are plenty of fair promises,
  - Its pleasures are but for a season:
    - Its wages are:
      - Sorrow,
      - Remorse,
      - Death.

- They that sow to the flesh do indeed reap destruction.

- Galatians 6:7

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap.

- 6:8 For he that sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that sows to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

- Let us remember the words of Scripture, “your sin will find you out” ( Numbers 32:23 ),
- Sooner or later, in this life or in the life to come, sin and the sinner will meet face to face, and have a bitter reckoning.

- Let us be sure that of all trades sin is the most unprofitable.
  - Judas,
  - Achan,
  - Gehazi,
- Ananias and Sapphira
  - All found it to be unprofitable.

- Well might we heed the words of Paul when he says:
“What fruit had you in those things whereof you are now ashamed?”
( Romans 6:21 ).

- # 4 We see in the case of Judas a man who had great privilege but failed to use it.

- We are told that this unhappy man “departed and went, and hanged himself.”
- What an awful death to die.
  - An apostle of Christ,
- A former preacher of the Gospel,
  - A companion of Peter, James and John.

- What great opportunity went to waste.
- Judas commits suicide and rushes into God's presence unprepared and unforgiven.

- # 5

Let us never forget that Judas sinned against light and knowledge.

- 2 Peter 2:15

Which have forsaken the right way,
and are gone astray,
following the way of Balaam
the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

- 2:17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

- Let us remember:
  - Lot's wife,
  - Pharaoh,
  - Korah,
  - Dathan,
  - Abiram
- Saul, King of Israel:
- Let them be examples burned int our memory.

- It is written in Proverbs, “He that being often reprovved
yet stiffens his neck shall suddenly be destroyed and that without remedy.”
( Proverbs 29:1 ).

- May we all strive to live up to the light.

- Ephesians 4:30

And

grieve not the holy Spirit of God,

- There may be a clear knowledge of truth in the head,
- And yet a deliberate love of sin in the heart,
- Followed by a refusal to repent.

- And now what is the state of our hearts?

- Let us
remember Judas, and beware.

- May Judas serve as a beacon:
let us look well at him,
and not play the fool.
- 1Ti 1:19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:
- 1:20 Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan,..
- May we add Judas to that list.
- And may we NOT add yous or mine!

- # 6 Luke says that Judas “fell away” and went to “his own place,”
    (Acts 1:25)
- Judas determined
    his own destiny.
- What is yours
    and mine?

The doors of the church
are open.

The Spirit and the Bride
Say “Come”.

Revelation 22:17
