

A just weight and balance are the LORD'S:

Thus saith the Lord...

The Parable of the Friends of the Bridegroom
(Mark. 2:18-20)

In overstepping the boundary line of Jewish religious and social etiquette, the Lord performed an act of great significance, which was sure to call forth criticism.

The Lord Jesus did not come into the world, as some suppose, to be nothing more than a law-giver, a king, a teacher, and an example.

Had this been all the purpose of His coming, there would have been small comfort for man.

Mark 2:18

And John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting: and they come and said unto him,

Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the sons of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day.

Inadequate
knowledge,

when linked with malice,

will put the worst twist upon the best actions.

The moral code of the day was invoked to condemn Christ in mingling with the publicans.

No trouble was taken to ascertain the true character of the feast.

By their criticism the Pharisees exposed their own hollow spiritual lives.

The Pharisees
condemned themselves in seeking to condemn Christ.

Great care and soul searching should be taken before judgment is passed upon the actions of others, especially when their character is known to be good.

There may be good reasons for fasting.

However, the trouble with the Pharisees was that in far too many cases their fasting was for self-display.

It was to call the attention of men to their goodness.

The Pharisees actually whitened their faces and went about with disheveled garments on their fast days so that no one could miss the fact that they were fasting and so that everyone would see and admire their devotion.

The Lord Jesus came into the world to be a physician as well as a teacher.

He knew the necessities of human nature.

He saw us all sick of a mortal disease, stricken with the plague of sin, and dying daily.

He pitied us, and came down to bring divine medicine for our relief.

He came to give health and cure to the dying, to heal the broken hearted, and to offer strength to the weak.

No sin-sick soul is too far gone for Him.

It is His glory to heal and restore to life the most desperate cases.

For unfailing skill, for unwearied tenderness, the great Physician stands alone.

There is none like Him.

After Jesus called Matthew Levi
to be a disciple he went to Levi's house to enjoy a meal

It must have been a situation similar to any of the times when we might gather for a meal

We don't get together to be miserable,

We get together to enjoy the time and each other

As is often the case, those critical of Jesus saw an opportunity to find fault.

More concerned with censuring the conduct of others than in rectifying their own.

They desired that Jesus should regulate his righteousness by theirs

And embrace their particular customs and forms of devotion.

Comparing themselves with other people.

That they may have an opportunity of exalting themselves.

In that setting, Jesus told one of his short parables
to communicate something important about himself and God's kingdom.

At the dinner, Jesus chose to eat with a suspicious crowd

Luke 5:29

there was a great number of tax collectors present

also other
"sinners"

As one might expect that there was an air of enjoyment

However,
others knew about the dinner party

Scribes and Pharisees were thinking how can he eat with this bunch of riff-raff?

They could not understand_ that Jesus came to help people just like this.

We still struggle with that same conflict today

Even the disciples of John were critical

They and the Pharisees made a regular practice of fasting

It appears from the text they might have been fasting on the very day that Jesus was enjoying the dinner party.

To them, religion was composed of rigorous rules and traditions, and there was little to enjoy about it

They could not understand Jesus or his disciples

Their criticism came out of an inability to explain what seemed like non-religious behavior.

The opposition can never be satisfied.

• Matthew 11:18

For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a demon.

• 19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a gluttonous man and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

- We might note a couple of points about the critics of Jesus

- It is very easy to take one's own religious practice, that may be acceptable as one's own personal expression, and turn it into something

- that is equal to God's standard and requirement

Those who already harbor ill-will or prejudice against someone tend to always see or believe the worst about the other person

It was in that setting that Jesus then told the story which answers the criticism

THE PARABLE OF THE

Mark 2:19-20

- Mark 2:19-20

And Jesus said to them,

"Can the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them?

- As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast.

- But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days."

This little story was intended to communicate
a single point:

The presence of Jesus is reason to celebrate, not mourn.

John 10:10

The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy:

I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

The real question is not,
"Why isn't Jesus and his disciples fasting?"

It's really,
"Why isn't everyone else celebrating the fact that God's Son is among them?"

These people had no idea who was with them

Jesus answered and said to her, ""If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

If people had only realized who Jesus was, it would have changed their entire outlook

When one realizes who Jesus is

what he came to do..... how can one not celebrate?

Jesus relieves us of tedious religious ritual like fasting

There are examples of fasting, but there is no regulation or burdensome ritual to follow... only the expression of a heart full of faith

We still struggle to keep our practices from becoming ritualized

Jesus came to bring joy

He does speak of a time when the bridegroom is taken away and there would be no feasting then fasting would be appropriate because of their sorrow.

However, that time is short-lived because of the resurrection

John 3:29

He who has the bride is the bridegroom;

but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice.

Therefore this joy of mine is fulfilled.

People tend to resist changes even when those changes are created by God

Look at how the religious leader resisted what Jesus taught

Look at how the masses resisted Jesus' effort to change them

Look at how people today resist following God's word

Look at how, even religious people, so often make their religion a chore rather than a change

In the setting of this parable, the people are asking Jesus, "What's wrong with you and your disciples?"

But again, the real question isn't what's wrong with Jesus, it's,
"What's wrong with us?"

God has given us reason to celebrate.

Jesus is reason enough to discard every burden and sorrow

- Jesus knew quite well that he was coming with a message which was startlingly new;
- He also knew that his way of life was extremely different from that of the orthodox teaching of the day.

- He also knew how difficult it is for the minds of men to accept new truth;

- And so he uses two illustrations to show how necessary it is to be open to truth.

- He speaks of the danger of sewing a new patch on an old garment.
- It may well be that there are times when we try to patch,
 - When what is necessary is the complete abandonment of the old and the acceptance of something new.

Wine was kept in wineskins.

When these skins were new they had a certain elasticity;

As they grew old they became hard and unyielding.

Jesus is pleading for a certain elasticity in our minds.

It is fatally easy to become set in our ways.

As they grow older almost everyone develops a constitutional dislike of that which is new and unfamiliar.

We grow very unwilling to make any adjustments in our habits and ways of life.

Abraham went out not knowing where he was going.
(Hebrews 11:8.)

There is another great verse in that same chapter of Hebrews:

"By faith Jacob, when dying, blessed each of the sons; of Joseph bowing in worship over the head of his staff."
(Hebrews 11:21.)

With the breath of death upon him the old traveller

He still had his pilgrim staff in his hand.

To the end of the day, with the evening now upon him, he was still ready for the road.

Are you ready?

Are you ready to allow Jesus to challenge your life?

to change your life for the better.

to fill your life with joy and thankfulness?

Doors of the church are open.
