A just weight and balance are the LORD'S:

Thus saith the Lord...

- John 4:39

And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified,

He told me all that ever I did.

4:40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

- Once the Samaritans had been introduced to Christ, they sought his company.

- They asked him to stay with them that they might learn of him and come to know him better.

- John 4:41

And many more believed because of his own word;

- 4:42 *And said unto the woman,
Now we believe,
not because of thy saying:
for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world.*

Let us note how there is a remarkable display of titles for Jesus:

John 4:9-42

- “A Jew”
- “A prophet”
- “Messiah”
- “Christ”
- “I AM”
- “Savior of the World”

- Such a list is not accidental.
- Do not overlook how titles of respect evolve into titles of belief.

- Faith grows little by little.

- 2 Peter 3:18

But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

- “Savior of the world”
(John 4:42; 1 John 4:14)

- It is only in John’s writings that we find this tremendous title.

- Jesus is indeed Savior.
- He rescues men from evil
and hopeless situations;
- He brakes the chains that bind us to our past
 - And enables us
to meet the future.

- The Samaritan woman is in fact the great example of his saving power.
 - She no doubt appeared beyond redemption.
- The most unlikely souls often prove to be the most ready to respond.
- Let us not grow weary in well-doing.
(Galatians 6:9)

- But Jesus came and doubly rescued her;
- He enabled her to break away from the past
- And opened a new future to her.
- There is no title adequate to describe Jesus except Savior of the World.

- There is little use in telling people that Christ will bring them joy and peace, if our own lives are gloomy, worried and defeated.

- The world still needs a Savior;
- It is a sick world
(Matthew 9:12).
- It was a cursed world,
needing a Savior
(Acts 3:26).
- It is a lost world
(Luke 19:10).

- John 4:43

*Now after two days
he departed,
and went into Galilee.*

4:44 *For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet has no honor
in his own country.*

• John 4:45

*Then when he was come into Galilee,
the Galilaeans
received him, having seen
all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast:...*

- It was an ancient proverb with much the same meaning as our own "familiarity breeds contempt."

- But John introduces it in a very strange place.

- The other gospels introduce it on occasions when Jesus was rejected by his own countrymen;

- John introduces it on an occasion when he was accepted.

- The Samaritans believed in Jesus, not because of someone else's story
- But because they themselves had first-hand testimony.

- The Galilaeans
believed in him, not because someone had told them about him
- But because of what they had seen him
do in Jerusalem.
- Things never seen before.⁸

- But hard hearts
do not melt easily.

- Mark 3:5

And he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts,

- Something happened later in Samaria that is amazing.
- We find these hated Jews more receptive to the gospel than ever expected.
- Why did that happen?

- Acts 8:3

As for Saul, he made havock of the church, ...

- 8:4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

- 8:5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

- Acts 8:6

And the people with one accord

gave heed unto those things which Philip spoke, ...

- 8:8 And there was great joy in that city.

- Sadly, today you will find some who are more interested in some church feud,
 - Or some theological debate.
- 2 Thessalonians 2:10
”received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.”

- The whole purpose of a sermon is to draw someone closer to Christ.
- In today's world,
this is not a given,
even among church folks.

- People have so many different sources of information that it is very easy to get distracted from the truth,
- And find themselves dabbling in other doctrines.
- Be ever on guard.

1Thessalonians 5:21

Prove all things;
hold fast that which is good.

- 2 Corinthians 11:3

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve
in his craftiness, your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity and the purity that is in Christ.

- 2 Timothy 3:13

But evil men and impostors shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.

2 Timothy 3:14

But continue in the things which you have learned...

- 3:15

....which are able to make you wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Let us then see what Paul says of the usefulness of scripture.

(# 1) He says that the Scriptures give the wisdom which will bring salvation.

How many have found life futile and meaningless.

- How many have waded through book after book

and

philosophy after philosophy in an attempt to find satisfaction.

- But have never found it.

- The writings of mere men offer nothing beyond this life.

John 18:37

Pilate therefore said unto him,

Art thou a king then?

Jesus answered,

To this end was I born,

and for this cause came I

into the world,

- No man or woman seeking for truth has any right to neglect the reading of the Bible.

- Why?

- It is a book with an amazing tract record
- So much so that it must not be disregarded.
- For there is a saving wisdom here that is in no other book.

- All theories,
- All theologies,
- All ethics,
- Are to be tested
against the Bible.

- If they contradict
the teaching of the Bible, they are to be refused.
 - It is our duty to use our minds and test every doctrine with the teaching of Jesus Christ.

- The study of the Scriptures trains a man/woman in righteousness.
- We must study the Scriptures to make ourselves useful to God and to his fellow-men.

- Sometimes people want to know all about salvation before they know the Savior.
- Some things we can know only by experience.
 - Jesus Christ is one of them.

- We can know much about Jesus without really knowing Him.
- Only when we come to know the “Savior of the world” do we begin to know and understand His “unsearchable riches” (Ephesians 3:8).

- “Savior of the world”
points beyond Jewish and Samaritan cultural frontiers.
- God’s work in Christ is not limited to Israel (or Samaria).
- This is an early glimpse of the universal mission of Jesus.

- Jesus remarks in John 10:16 that He has “other sheep that are not of this sheep fold. I must bring them also.”
- His light shines for all (John 1:9).
 - For “every nation, tribe, people, and language” (Rev. 7:9).

• John 4:43

*Now after two days
he departed thence,
and went into Galilee.*

John 4:44

*For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honor
in his own country.*

- The proverbial saying that a prophet has no honor with those who know him well is mentioned frequently by Jesus (Mt. 13:57; Mark 6:4; Lk. 4:24).

- It is equivalent to our saying that familiarity breeds contempt.

- They had spent time with Him but He still was not really accepted (John 2:24-25; 4:48).
 - They experienced no true belief,
- Because they thought him too inferior and too common.

Matthew 13:55

Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? And are not his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas?

13:56 And are not all his sisters with us?

Where then did this man get all these things?"

13:57 And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household."

13:58 And he did not do many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

- Jesus reaches Galilee in verse 45.
- So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, having seen all the things that He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they themselves also went to the feast.
- Good news or not?

- The welcome of the Galileans was actually a rejection of Him and His mission,
 - For they were interested only in His miracles,
 - They were not welcoming a Messiah who could save them,
 - But a miracle worker who could amaze them.

- The Galilaeans welcomed him.
 - They never had before.
 - Luke records that when Jesus identified himself as the Messiah in the synagogue of his home town of Nazareth,
 - "all in the synagogue ... led him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw him down headlong,"
(Luke 4:28-29).

- We now note:

- 1John 4:14

And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.

- What have the Galileans missed that the Samaritans didn't?

(# 1) Jesus brings life.

- (1John 4:9).
- There is a world of difference between existence and life.
- All men have existence but all do not have life.

- The eagerness with which men seek pleasure shows that there is something missing in their lives.
 - Jesus gives:
 - A goal for living;
 - Strength to reach that goal;
 - Living with Christ turns mere existence into fullness of life.

(# 2) Jesus restores man's lost relationship with God.

- No longer is man
the enemy of God.

- The
“Savior of the world”
has made it possible for man to enter into a new relationship of peace and friendship with God.

- (# 3) The Savior of the world frees man from himself.
- From habits which have become their shackles;
- From his temptations;
 - From his fears and anxieties;
 - From his stupidity and mistakes.
- Jesus enables man to to face time and eternity.

- The Savior of the world brings mankind into a new relationship to God.

- A relationship that brings men into:
 - God's grace,
 - God's love,
 - God's forgiveness.

- The ending of the Gospel story of the woman at the well finishes with her people becoming completely convinced that Jesus is the Savior of the entire world.

- They have reached a life-changing moment.
- May we find it ourselves.

- Think on these things
- Philippians 4:8

The doors of the church are open.

The Spirit and the Bride
Say
