A just weight and balance are the LORD'S:

Thus saith the Lord...

- There were times when Jesus withdrew from the crowds.
- He was under continuous strain and needed rest.
  - He also needed time for prayer.
    - So he retreats to Bethsaida.
(John 5)

- From Capernaum to the other side of the Sea of Galilee was a distance of about four miles.
- The people had seen Jesus depart.
- Seeing the direction the boat was taking;
- They hastened around the top of the lake by land.

- The Jordan River flows into the north end of the Sea of Galilee.

- Two miles up the river they were able to cross over the Jordan river.

- Near the crossing was a village called Bethsaida

- Phillip was from Bethsaida.

- Here was to be the scene of a wonderful miracle.

- It was nine miles round the top of the lake to Bethsaida.
- And they made the journey with haste.
- The Feast of the Passover was near and there would be even bigger crowds on the roads at that time.

- The way the Jews took was longer
but they avoided going through
Samaritan territory.

- It is likely that the great crowd was swelled by
the many pilgrims on their way to the Passover Feast.

- At sight of the crowd
Jesus' sympathy was kindled.

- They were hungry and tired,
and they must be fed.

- Philip was from Bethsaida so Jesus turned to him for advise

as he would have local knowledge.

(John 1:44)

- Philip's answer was disappointing.
- He said that even if food could be obtained it would cost more than two hundred denarii to give this vast crowd even a little each.

- A denarius was the standard day's wage for a working man.
- So Philip calculated that it would take more than six months' wages to even begin to feed a crowd like this.

- Then Andrew

appeared on the scene.

- He had discovered a lad with five barley loaves

and

two little fishes.

- Barley bread was the cheapest of all breads
and was held in contempt.

- As barley was the food of beasts.

- And the bread of the poorest of the poor.<sup>14</sup>

- Palestine

- A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey;
(Deuteronomy 8:8).

- The failure of this crop was a national disaster (Joel 1:11).

- It was, and is, grown chiefly as feed for animals.
(1 Kings 4:28),

- Oats being practically unknown.

- The fish would be no bigger than sardines.
- Pickled fish from Galilee were known all over the Roman Empire.
  - In those days fresh fish was an unheard-of luxury,
    - So the boy had his little pickled fish to help get down the dry barley bread.

- Not only were the thousands fed
we behold another wonder:

- John 6:12

When they were filled,
he said unto his disciples,
Gather up the fragments that remain,
that nothing be lost.

6:13 *Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves,
which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

- Does not this same wonder in different form transpire before our eyes:
  - We have become so familiar with it that we fail to recognize it as a perpetual proof of God's creative power.

- Consider the amount of food required daily for a whole nation, or a large city.
- Where do these stores come?
- Who ultimately provides them?
- Who feeds the teeming billions of the world?

- If we would but open our eyes we should see at each seed-time and harvest a perpetual wonder.
- Let us remember the words:
“Give us each day our daily bread,”
  - Realizing that we are ever dependent on Him.

- Many of the people continued to follow the Savior in expectation of repetitions of his miracles..
- They sought for the meat which perishes.
- Not for heavenly manna of which if a man eat he shall never hunger.
(John 6:27-33)

- The Jews were waiting for the prophet whom they believed Moses had promised to them.
  - "The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brethren, him you shall heed" (Deuteronomy 18:15).
  - And they were dead right.
    - That was one of the signs of the Messiah.

- But the strange and sad thing was that when they reached that proper conclusion,
- They were willing to accept Jesus as that prophet.
  - But it was not so very long before another mob was clamoring:
"Crucify him! Crucify him!"
  - Why was it at that moment that the mob accepted Jesus?

- For one thing, they were eager to support Jesus when he gave them what they wanted.
- He had healed and fed them;
- And they would thereupon have made him their leader.
- But it would have been a bought loyalty.
  - And Jesus would not allow that.

- The attitude of that mob disgusts us.
- But are we so very different?
  - When we want comfort in sorrow,
  - Strength in difficulty,
  - Peace in turmoil,
  - Help in distress.
  - There is no one so wonderful as Jesus

- But when he comes to us with demands for sacrifice,
  - We want nothing to do with him.
- When we examine our hearts,
  - It may be that we find that we too love Jesus
  - For what we can get out of him.

- They wished to use him for their own purposes.
  - To mold him to their own dreams.
- They were waiting for the Messiah;
but they visualized him in their own way.

- Again, are we so very different?
  - When we appeal to Christ,
- Is it for our own schemes and ideas
- Or is it for humility and obedience?
  - Is our prayer:
"Lord, give me strength to do what you want me to do"
  - Or is it:
"Lord, give me strength to do what I want to do"?

- They would have followed Jesus at that moment because he was giving them what they wanted and they wished to use him for their own purposes.
- That attitude still lingers.
- We would like Christ's gifts without his Cross;
- We would like to use him instead of allowing him to use us.

- John 6:14-15

So when the men had seen the sign which he had done, they said:

- "Truly, this is the prophet who is to come into the world."
  - So Jesus, aware that they were going to come and seize him to make him king, withdrew again to the mountain alone.

- The feeding of the five thousand, is one of those signs that is recorded in all four Gospels.
- There must be some very special reason for this,
  - So what is it?

- There are a few differences in the way the story is presented,
- Which we would expect from four independent writers.

- These diversities provide evidence of the fact that the Bible is the inspired Word of God,
- If Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, planned to make up a story about the Man called Jesus and impose it upon the world as a pretended divine revelation,

- They would have been very careful indeed to see that every incident was related in exactly the same way.
- But instead, there are differences according to the viewpoint of each one.

- After our Lord has fed the 5,000.
- The disciples get into their boat heading toward Capernaum.
  - They are expecting smooth sailing.
    - Why should anything go wrong after this wonderful event they have just witnessed?

- Capernaum was their destination;
- A place of comfort, a place of rest.
  - But suddenly they were subjected to the storm.
- Christians are to expect no exemption from storms and difficulties.

- The Sea of Galilee lies nearly 700 feet below sea level.
- The surrounding hills rise abruptly to about 2,000 feet above sea level.
  - The sharp drop of nearly 3,000 feet from the tops of the hills to the surface of the lake
  - Creates ideal conditions for sudden, violent storms for which the Sea of Galilee is notorious (Matthew 8:23-27).

- Mark 6:48 (ASV)

And seeing them
distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them,...

- Let us picture their situation.
- They were paralyzed with fear,
  - They were out in the middle of the sea.

- They couldn't go back,
- And it was difficult to go forward.
  - It was too far to swim to the shore,
  - They were filled with despair.
- And remember, these were seasoned fishermen.

- They began their journey about 6:00 P.M.,
- And we find them still rowing at 3:00 A.M. in the morning.
- Still they are about half-way across the lake.

- The lake is about seven miles wide at its widest part,
- So that in eight or nine hours they had only made some three and a half miles.
- By this time they must have been in a state of exhaustion and bordering on despair.
  - (John 6:19)

- Sometimes we feel like the Psalmist David...

- Psalms 13:1

How long will you forget me,
O LORD? For ever?

How long will you hide your face from me?

- We often want the Lord to work on a different timetable.

- Our timetable.

- But if He waits three days to come to Bethany,
- Or if He waits nine hours to show up in our storm,
- He'll be right on time!

- Now, something happened that terrified even seasoned fishermen.
- They were familiar with these types of storms.
- But they were certainly not accustomed to seeing human figures walking on the water.

- Not surprisingly, they were frightened, and cried out in terror, {G_349}

”To cry out, to scream”

- “It is a ghost!”

(Matthew 14:26; Mark 6:49).

- An event of this nature is enough to make the hair stand on end and the blood run cold.

- Moses
divided the sea;

- Jesus walked upon it!

- Some refuse this, saying,
"There was really

- no miracle;

- The disciples

- were mistaken.

- The Lord was only walking on the shore near the vessel;
- And the superstitious fear of the disciples made them think he was walking on the sea;
- And they put ashore and took him on board, etc.

- As the disciples were two or three miles from shore, how could they have possibly seen the Lord walking on the shore at night and during a storm?
- It would have been impossible to distinguish anyone on shore.
  - Or to hold a a conversation with anyone on shore.

- Let us pause for a moment to notice one of John's deeper insights.
  - John is telling us how Jesus sees us.
    - Mark 6:48
And he saw them toiling ...
      - “saw”
{Greek 1492}
  - Means by implication to know:
To be aware,
    - To understand.
- He was aware of their situation.

- Next, John tells us how well Jesus can see.

- John 6:19

So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs,...

- 1 furlong = 1/8 mile

- So 25 furlongs = 3.125 miles

- And 30 furlongs = 3.75 miles

- The hidden message is:

- We can't get far enough away from Him to where He cannot see us and know what we're going through.

- John 6:19

“ ... they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

- walking {Greek 4043}

- He was just taking a casual stroll.

- “drawing nigh,”

means that He was coming nearer and nearer to the ship.

- Psalms 77:19

Your way is in the sea,
and your path in the great waters,
and your footsteps are not known.

- John 6:20.
But he said
to them,
It is I
(literally, I am);
be not afraid.
- Divine words
for sure.
- Words of comfort
for sure.

- Words:
- In our darkest hour,
  - In our suffering,
- In the furnace of temptation,
  - On our death-bed,
- The same voice still rings.
  - Scattering doubt and fear.

- John 6:21

Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

- It is important to note that this was NOT a rescue from the stormy sea.

- In fact, it was the reverse!

- John 6:20

*But he saith unto them,
It is I; be not afraid.*

- They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat;
- and straightway the boat was at the land where they were going.
- John abbreviated this wonder by omitting Peter's walking on the water to go to Jesus (Matthew 14:28-31),
- And Mark recorded that the apostles' "heart was hardened" (Mark 6:52).

- Let us consider Mark's account.

- Mark 6:51

And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

- 6:52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

- We find the Apostles acting like us.
  - In that they were quick to forget.
  - They forgot what Jesus had done just a few hours earlier.
  - Possible due to the stress of the storm.

- However, Matthew gives a happy ending.
  - The apostles
confessed him
and
worshiped him
after he came aboard
(Matthew 14:31-33).

- Let us stop for a moment to review the purpose of each of the gospel writers:
  - Matthew
    - Mark
    - Luke
    - John

- Matthew emphasizes the promised Messiah.
- Mark emphasizes Jesus servant character.
- Luke emphasizes His humanity.
- John emphasizes Christ the Son of God.

- It is the simple fact of life that when Christ is there the storm becomes a calm,
  - Tumult peace,
  - What cannot be done is done,
  - The unbearable becomes bearable.

- John

is telling us:

- To walk with Christ
is to conquer the storm.
