are the LORD'S:

Thus saith the Lord...

- John 8:31-32

So Jesus said to the Jews who had come to believe in him:

- "If you remain in my word,
you are truly my disciples:
• and you will know
the truth:
• and the truth will
make you free."

- Freedom:
- Men have fought and died for it,
- Philosophers dream of it,
 - Jesus guarantees it.

- Few New Testament passages have such a complete picture of discipleship as this.
 - Discipleship begins with belief.
- Believing that what Jesus says:
 - About truth.
 - About the love of God,
 - About the terror of sin,
- About the real meaning of life.

- Discipleship involves four things.

- Let's see what they are.

- (1) It involves constant listening to the word of Jesus.
- The Christian listens for the voice of Jesus all of his/her life.
- And makes no decision until having heard what he has to say.

- (2) It involves constant learning from Jesus.

- The disciple
(mathetes)
{G-3101}
is literally the learner.

- All his life
a Christian should be learning more and more about Jesus.

- The shut mind is the end of discipleship.

- (3) It involves constant study into the truth which the words of Jesus bear.
- No one can hear or read the words of Jesus once and then say that he understands their full meaning.

- (4) It involves constant obeying of the word of Jesus.
 - The disciple is the learner who learns in order to do.

- To learn from Jesus

is to learn the truth.

- "You will know the truth,"
said Jesus.

- What is that truth?
 - There are many possible answers to that question
 - The truth which Jesus brings shows us the real values of life.

- The fundamental questions
to ask are:
 - "To what am I to give my life?"
 - To a career?
 - To material possessions?
 - To pleasure?
 - To the service of God?"

- The truth we should be seeking is..
 - To see in life what things are really important and what are not.

- True Discipleship
results in freedom.

- "*The truth will
make you free.*"

- In his service
is perfect freedom.

- If so freedom from what?

- Discipleship brings us four freedoms.
 - (1) It brings us freedom from fear.
- The man who is a disciple never again has to walk alone.
 - He walks for ever in the company of Jesus, and in that company fear is gone.

- (2) It brings freedom from self.

- Many a man fully recognizes that his greatest handicap is his own self.

- Revelation 21:5

And He that sat upon the throne said,
"Behold, I make all things new."

- 2 Corinthians 5:17

If any man be in Christ,
he is a new creature:
old things are passed away;
behold, all things are become new.

- (3) It brings freedom from other people.
- There are many whose lives are dominated by the fear of what other people may think and say.

- H. G. Wells
once said that
the voice of our neighbors
sounds louder in our ears
than the voice of God.
- The disciple is the man who has ceased to care
what people say,
- Because he thinks only
of what God says.

- (4) It brings freedom from sin.
- Many a man sins, not because he wants to, but because he cannot help it.
- Sin has become master.
 - Try as he will, he cannot break away.
 - Discipleship breaks the chains which bind us to sin.

- Jesus' talk of freedom annoyed the Jews.
- They claimed that they had never been slaves to any man.
- Obviously there was a sense in which this was simply not true.
 - They had been captives in exile in Babylon;
 - At the moment they were subjects of the Romans.

- Again and again Jewish rebellions flared up because some fiery leader insisted that the Jews could obey no earthly ruler because God was their only King.

- Josephus writes of the followers of Judas of Galilee who led a famous revolt against the Romans:

- "They have an inviolable attachment to liberty, and they say that God is to be their only Ruler and Lord"

(Josephus, Antiquities of the Jews, 18: 1, 6)₂₃

- Even to suggest to a Jew that he might be regarded as a slave was a deadly insult.

- But it was another slavery of which Jesus was speaking.
- "Everyone, who commits sin is the slave of sin."
(John 8:34)
 - Jesus was reiterating a principle which the wise Greeks had stated again and again.

- The Stoics said:

"Only the wise man is free;
the foolish man is a slave."

{<https://www.thestandupphilosophers.co.uk/stoic-paradoxes>}

- Socrates had demanded:

"How can you call a man free
when his pleasures rule over him?"

{<https://www.azquotes.com/quote/1430537>}

- Paul thanked God that the Christian was freed from slavery to sin (Romans 6:17-20).

- “You were slaves
to sin.”
(Romans 6:17)
(Youngs Literal Translation)

- Note
the tense.
- As a state that is past and gone!

- The great sin power
- And not just “sin,”
- That grip of sin on you.

- Note in John Jesus states:

- The Light

Vs.

- The Darkness.

- It's NOT just one sin.

- It's the POWER
that enslaves you.

- It is
“The truth”
(John 8:32)
- VS
- “The darkness”
(John 8:12)
- That is the battle
where souls
are won or lost.

- A man can let a habit get such a grip of him that he cannot break it.
- He can allow a pleasure to master him so completely that he cannot do without it.
- He becomes powerless to break away from it.
 - As Seneca said,
he hates and loves his sins at one and the same time.

- So far from doing what he likes, the sinner has lost the power to do what he likes.
 - He is a slave to his habits.
 - The wrong pleasures which have mastered him.
- This is precisely Jesus' point.
 - No man who sins can ever be said to be free.

- Then Jesus makes a veiled threat,
- He reminds them that in any household there is a difference between the slave and the son.

- The son is a permanent dweller in the household,
- But the slave can be ejected at any time.
- In effect Jesus is saying to the Jews: "You think that you are sons in God's house and that nothing can ever banish you from God.
 - However, the slave can be ejected from the master's house at any time."

- It is a terrible thing to trade on the mercy of God
- And that is what the Jews were doing.
- There is a warning here for more than the Jews.

- Jesus is dealing a death-blow to a claim which to the Jews was all-important.
- For the Jew Abraham was the greatest figure in all religious history;
- And the Jew considered himself safe and secure.
 - Simply because he was a descendant of Abraham.

- The psalmist could address the people as :
 - "O offspring of Abraham...,
sons of Jacob,
his chosen ones!
(Psa 105:6).
 - Isaiah said to the people:
"But you, Israel,... whom I have chosen,
the offspring of Abraham,
my friend"
(Isa 41:8).

- They believed that Abraham had gained such merit from his goodness that this merit was sufficient,
 - Not only for himself, but for all his descendants also.

- Justin Martyr had a discussion with Trypho the Jew about Jewish religion and the conclusion was that,

- "The eternal kingdom will be given to those who are the seed of Abraham according to the flesh, even though they be sinners and unbelievers and disobedient to God"

(Justin Martyr, The Dialogue with Trypho, 140).

- Quite literally the Jew believed that he was safe because he was a descendant of Abraham.

- The attitude of the Jews is not without parallel in modern life.
- There are still those who try to live on a mom or dad's righteousness.

- There are those who try to live on a history and a tradition.
- There is many a congregation living on the spiritual capital of the past.

- No man or church or nation can live on the achievements of the past.
 - That is what the Jews were trying to do.
- Jesus is quite blunt about this.
 - He declares that the real descendant of Abraham act in the way in which Abraham acted.

- That is exactly what John the Baptist had said before.
- He had told the people plainly that the day of judgment was on the way
 - And that it was no good pleading that they were descendants of Abraham,
 - For God could raise up descendants to Abraham from stones, if he chose to do so (Matthew 3:9; Luke 3:8).

- It was not flesh and blood which made a man a descendant of Abraham;

- It was moral quality and spiritual faithfulness.
